JONESBORO DIVISION

KATHLEEN GRAHAM

PLAINTIFF

v.

No. 3:18-cv-100-DPM

SABRINA BAUGH; GREGORY BAUGH;
MARK GALLION; and BERKSHIRE
HATHAWAY, INC.

DEFENDANTS

ORDER

Graham was directed to amend her complaint by June 15th. No 7. She hasn't. She has filed notices, which the Court has construed liberally. The conclusory statement of discrimination based on race, age, and disability doesn't state a claim. Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009). These things are clear: Graham's frustration with her changing landlords has caused her stress; her new landlord has waived all past and future rent-related expenses for the rest of Graham's lease; and, after that, she must move out. No 8. Graham still hasn't alleged sufficient facts to support a violation of federal law. No 7 at 1. The Court will dismiss her case without prejudice. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B)(ii).

So Ordered.
